An Afternoon of Poetry: Readings by Cave Canem Poets

Join us for the annual Cave Canem poetry reading featuring Kyle Dargan and local Cave Canem fellows. Hosted by Reginald Harris from Poets House, New York City.

Kyle Dargan is the author of the poetry collection Anagnorisis, which was awarded the 2019 Lenore Marshall Prize and longlisted for the 2019 Pulitzer Prize in poetry. Dargan has partnered with the President's Committee on the Arts and Humanities to produce poetry programming at the White House and Library of Congress. He's worked with and supports a number of youth writing organizations, such as 826DC, Writopia Lab, Young Writers Workshop and the Dodge Poetry high schools program.

Founded by Toi Derricotte and Cornelius Eady in 1996 to remedy the under-representation and isolation of African American poets in the literary landscape, Cave Canem Foundation is a home for the many voices of African American poetry and is committed to cultivating the artistic and professional growth of African American poets.

Re-opening activities are made possible in part by a generous gift from Sandra R. Berman.
